Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/881531942/

Downloaded on Apr 22, 2026

BEHIND THE FOOTLIGHTS—Three of the principal performers in the Rockville Little Theater's production of "Howie," to be presented Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at the new Rockville Civic Auditorium, discuss their roles as curtain time approaches. From left are Eugene G. Moran, who portrays the role of Walter; David Moran, as "Howie," and Jean Everhart, who performs as Edith.

Fair Lanes Feature

fans alike have given him the abbreviated name of Billy "G".

Council Receiving Applications for Personnel Board

The Montgomery County Council is receiving applications for a position on the County Personnel Board to replace Louis A. Palmer, whose term expires December 31.

Applicants for the three-year term must be qualified voters of the county. It pays $20 a day with a maximum of $1800 yearly.

The personnel board, composed of three members, is responsible for administering the merit system governing the county's 1900 employees.

Applications should be addressed to Clerk to the County Council, County Office Building, Rockville.

Rockville Players Offer 'Howie' as First Production

The Rockville Little Theater will offer the comedy, "Howie," as its first production of the season tomorrow and Saturday at the Rockville Civic Center Auditorium, with curtain time scheduled for 8:30 p.m. on both dates.

David Moran will appear in the title role. Other case members assuming principal roles will be Jean Everhart, Eugene G. Moran, Margaret Slater, Betty Anne Marshall and Joe Fair. The performance will be directed by Mrs. Clyde Hardin, assisted by Thomas Kelley.

Tickets may be obtained at the box office or by telephoning Mrs. Betty Bridgham at GArden 4-9068.

Rockville Players Offer 'Howie' as First Production

Clipped By:
OneOldNewspaperFan
Apr 22, 2026

Copyright © 2026 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.